1. Name four types of foods humans ate before they switched to farming.

________________________________________________________

2. What likely caused humans to switch from hunting and gathering to farming?

________________________________________________________

3. Name three things that are necessary for farming.

________________________________________________________

4. Which part of the world has the earliest evidence for agriculture?

________________________________________________________

5. What does domestication mean?

________________________________________________________

6. What do archaeologists need to do FIRST when they find plant or animal remains at an archaeological site?

________________________________________________________

7. Name two types of plants that were domesticated in the Near East.

________________________________________________________

8. What are some ways that humans “manage” the environment in Tucson?

________________________________________________________